In the Criminal Court yesterday about a dozen keepers of houses of ill-repute were fined from $5 to $15 each, and indictments were brought against some fitteen others. This is done at periods as a means of revenue to the Criminal Court. In this way some of the money unlawfully spent finds its way back into the hands of the law-and the lawyers.

The Memphis skating rink has been closed, the license having been raised to the enormous figure of $400 a year. Messrs. Cubbage and Rohr carried on the rink in a business like manner and deserved success. There is no more graceul exercise than that of roller skating and it is to be regretted that the rink has been written by "Mark Twain" to Mr. Cody:

ELMIRA, N. Y., September 10, 1884.

DEAR Mr. Cody—I have now seen your
"Wild West" show two days in succession, and have enjoyed it thoroughly. It brought vividly back the breezy wild life of the great plains and the Rocky Mountains, and stirred me like a war song. Down to its smallest details the show is genuine—cowboys, vaqueros, Indians, stage coach, costumes and all; it is wholly two or three weeks things have been go terdsy and the temperature gradually rose until a little after 4 o'clock, when a rain streets in the vicinity of the Theater at o'clock was a lively one. Several hundred ladies, who had failed to provide them-selves with umbrellas, found themselves in a predicament that was anything but pleasant. The gutters were torrents of tirty water and every spont discharged a little cataract on the sidewalk. Every-thing taken into consideration, there was weeping and gnashing of teeth in many a hold last night over glories that has
